

ORDINANCE NO. 2018- ___

AN ORDINANCE OF THE BOROUGH OF MACUNGIE, LEHIGH COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA, REGULATING RESIDENTIAL RENTAL UNIT OCCUPANCY AND PROVIDING FOR INSPECTIONS AND PENALTIES FOR NONCOMPLIANCE.

RESIDENTIAL RENTAL PROPERTY ORDINANCE

WHEREAS, the Borough of Macungie, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania has determined that dwelling units not occupied by the property owner are frequently maintained at a standard significantly less than owner-occupied dwelling units and that such failure to maintain those units can and frequently does result in dwelling units which are unsafe, unsanitary and, in many instances, not maintained to the minimum standards required by the various fire prevention, building, housing, property maintenance, electrical and plumbing codes in effect in the Borough of Macungie, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania; and,

WHEREAS, the Borough of Macungie, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania, makes the following findings;

1. In recent years, many formerly private homes have been turned into residential rental units. Those rental units have oftentimes been rented to individuals who, because they have no ownership interest in the property, have allowed the properties to deteriorate. In addition, problems have occurred because many tenants have no ownership interest in the real estate, have not been concerned about following the Codes of the Borough, including Codes which govern the maintenance and safety of the property.
2. In many cases, the owners of the properties live long distances from the Borough of Macungie, Lehigh County, Pennsylvania. Thus, property maintenance of many rental units in the Borough has been substandard.
3. The above-referenced findings have caused problems for other home owners near the rental units.

WHEREAS, the Borough of Macungie, Lehigh County, finds that it is necessary to have a continuing procedure for the registration of rental properties and Landlords who engage in the business of rentals within the Borough of Macungie; and,

WHEREAS, the Borough of Macungie, Lehigh County, finds it to be desirable and in the public interest to enact the following ordinance providing for the regular and systematic inspection of these properties to insure their continued compliance with applicable Borough of Macungie, Lehigh County Codes; and,

WHEREAS, the Pennsylvania Borough Code authorizes Macungie Borough Council to enact Ordinances that Council deems beneficial to the Borough and necessary for the maintenance of the health, safety and welfare of its residents; and,

WHEREAS, Borough Council finds that the regulation of residential rental properties in the Borough is essential to maintain adequate controls over the health, safety and welfare of the community; to insure the safety and security of persons living in residential rental properties; to insure compliance with all applicable Borough ordinances and codes; to prevent the overcrowding of residential rental properties and to deter the overburdening of residential neighborhood parking facilities and public amenities; and, to maintain good order and a minimum quality of life for residents of the Borough.

NOW, THEREFORE, be it hereby ORDAINED that the Macungie Borough Council does hereby adopt and enact a new Chapter 267, Residential Rental Property Ordinance, in the Code of Ordinances of Macungie Borough as follows:

Article I. The Macungie Borough Code of Ordinances is hereby amended by the addition of a new Chapter 267, Residential Rental Property Ordinance, which shall read as follows:

Every owner who is not a Full-Time Resident of the Borough, and/or who does not live within forty (40) miles of the location of the Residential Rental Unit, measured in a straight line from the Residential Rental Unit to the bona fide residence of the owner, shall designate a Local Agent who shall reside in an area that is within forty (40) miles of the location of the Residential Rental Unit, distance measured as above. The identity, address and telephone number(s) of a person who is designated as Local Agent hereunder shall be provided by the owner to the Borough and the owner shall keep all such information current and updated as it changes.

§267-8. Maintenance and Inspections.

- A. The owner shall maintain the premises in compliance with the applicable Codes and shall regularly perform all routine maintenance and shall promptly make all repairs necessary to fulfill this obligation.
- B. Except as provided for herein, it shall be unlawful to occupy or let to others for occupancy any Residential Rental Unit which has not been registered, inspected and issued a Rental Occupancy License as required by this Chapter. Payment of the annual inspection fee, if applicable, shall be required if the Residential Rental Unit is to be rented. The requirements for periodic inspections shall be as follows:
 1. Each Residential Rental Unit shall be inspected by the Code Enforcement Officer or other designee of the Borough after the required registration, but prior to the issuance of a Rental Occupancy License. Thereafter each unit shall undergo an inspection upon change of ownership or every seven (7) years, whichever first occurs. The inspection shall include the exterior and interior of the premises being inspected and shall be conducted in compliance with the current Residential Rental Unit Inspection Checklist form on file at the Borough office.

2. The owner shall permit inspections of any Residential Rental Unit by the Code Enforcement Officer. Inspections shall be scheduled at least seven (7) days in advance and shall occur during normal business hours of 9:00 AM through 4:00 PM local time Monday through Friday, Borough holidays excepted, unless other inspection times are agreed to by the Owner and the Code Enforcement Officer. For such purpose, and for any re-inspection required hereunder, the owner shall provide access to the property to Borough representatives. A Residential Rental Unit where inspection access is denied will not be issued a Rental Occupancy License until inspection access is provided. No fee will be charged for the initial inspection or subsequent routine inspections, but appropriate fees may be charged for re-inspections if violations are found. If a dwelling unit fails to pass the initial inspection a follow up inspection will be scheduled within sixty (60) calendar days at no additional charge. Additional inspections may be subject to fees and/or charges as adopted by the resolution establishing Borough fees.
3. If the inspection of a Residential Rental Unit discloses Code deficiencies, the Code Enforcement Officer or other Borough designee shall issue a notice of violation. The notice of violation shall set forth the following:
 - a. The street address or appropriate description of the subject property;
 - b. The date of the inspection;
 - c. The identity of the inspector;
 - d. A list of the code deficiencies;
 - e. The date by which the owner is to accomplish repairs and/or otherwise eliminate the code deficiencies; and
 - f. Notice that, if the conditions are not repaired or the premises are not otherwise brought into compliance with the applicable code within the time specified the owner may be prosecuted and/or the Residential Rental Unit may be placarded as unfit for human occupancy in accordance with the applicable Code. Only the Borough shall have authority to institute prosecution proceedings under the terms of this article.
4. Upon receiving notice of any code violations from the Code Enforcement Officer, the owner shall promptly take action, or cause the necessary action to be taken, to abate the offending condition and eliminate the violation.
5. Upon the expiration of the time specified to accomplish repairs or otherwise bring the premises into code compliance, or upon notice to the Borough from the owner that the repairs have been accomplished or code deficiencies otherwise eliminated, whichever occurs first, the Code Enforcement Officer or another Borough designee shall re-inspect the subject Residential Rental Unit.
 - a. In the event such re-inspection discloses that the owner accomplished the repairs or the code deficiencies have otherwise been eliminated, the Code Enforcement Officer or other Borough designee shall issue a Rental Occupancy License to the owner or Local Agent in accordance with this Chapter.

- b. In the event such re-inspection discloses that the owner failed to accomplish the repairs or otherwise eliminate the code deficiencies, the Code Enforcement Officer may schedule additional re-inspections or may pursue prosecution of the violation as otherwise provided for within this Chapter. In such an event, no Rental Occupancy License will be issued until the Code deficiencies have been resolved.
- C. For the purpose of enforcing this ordinance, the Code Enforcement Officer or designee of the Borough may seek to obtain a search warrant issued by a competent authority in accordance with applicable legal standards for the purpose of compelling an inspection of a Residential Rental Unit. The refusal to provide inspection access does not limit the Borough to the remedy that the unit is determined not to be a Qualified Residential Rental Unit, but the Borough may also seek a search warrant. Refusal to allow entry of the Residential Rental Unit by the Code Enforcement Officer of the Borough to inspect said unit shall be a violation of this Ordinance.
 - D. The owner, tenant, or any other person with the approval the owner or owner's designated agent may request an inspection of the dwelling unit at any time. Application for a requested inspection must be made on the appropriate form issued by the Borough and the fee for this inspection must be paid in full at the time of the request. The inspection will be conducted within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of the inspection fee. A written inspection report of the requested inspection will be delivered to the person making the request and to the owner within ten (10) days of completion of the inspection. Any defects or violations uncovered during a requested inspection will be subject to the correction process outlined above.

§267-9. Rental Occupancy License.

- A. It shall be unlawful to occupy or let to others to occupy a Residential Rental Unit without first securing a Rental Occupancy License for the Residential Rental Unit in accordance with the provisions and within the time frame set forth in this Chapter. The Borough will issue a Rental Occupancy License upon the occurrence of all of the following:
 1. Upon receipt of the fully completed registration form and the payment of any license fee required by the Borough;
 2. After verification of all information submitted in the application process; and,
 3. Upon inspection and/or re-inspection of the Residential Rental Unit during which the inspecting officer does not note any violations of the codes referenced in the definition of "Codes" above.
- B. Issuance of a Rental Occupancy License shall represent compliance with the registration and inspection requirements of this Chapter but shall not denote compliance with any specific code or standard of safety.
- C. If, after a Rental Occupancy License has been issued, it is determined that false information was supplied on an application for registration of a Residential Rental Unit, the license shall immediately become null and void and the owner shall be considered in violation of this Ordinance.

§267-10. Fees.

The fees for registration, inspection, re-inspection, follow up inspection, inspections requested by owners or tenants, missed inspection appointment fees, and any other fee required by this Ordinance shall be established by resolution contemporaneously with the adoption of this ordinance and may be reviewed and changed from time to time by resolution of Borough Council.

§267-11. Non-liability of Borough.

The issuance of a Rental Occupancy License is not a representation by the Borough that the Residential Rental Unit inspected and/or the building in which it is located does not contain any violation of any of the codes referenced in the definition of "Codes" above. Rather, the issuance of a Rental Occupancy License represents that the Residential Rental Unit has been registered with the Borough. Neither the enactment of this Ordinance nor the issuance of a Rental Occupancy License is a guarantee to any person that no code violations exist in the premises inspected, nor shall there be imposed any liability upon the Borough for any errors or omissions which resulted in the issuance of such certificate, nor shall the Borough bear any liability not otherwise imposed by law.

§267-12. Appeals.

- A. The owner of a Residential Rental Unit, who has been cited or who is aggrieved by a decision of the Code Enforcement Officer or other Borough designee may, within 30 days of the date of receipt of the denial of a Rental Occupancy License and/or the notice of violation or the time fixed for repairs whichever is shorter, appeal the decision to Borough Council.
- B. An appeal shall be signed and submitted by the owner and filed with the Borough Secretary. A detailed statement shall be filed, including the ground(s) and the reason(s) alleged as to why the determination of the Code Enforcement Officer is incorrect or should be overturned and a statement of relief requested by the applicant. The appeal shall be accompanied by the required hearing fee.
- C. Upon receipt of the appeal and required fee, the Borough shall schedule a public hearing on the appeal. The meeting shall be at a time and date as determined by the Council or hearing officer, however, not more than 30 calendar days from receipt of the appeal, unless otherwise agreed to.
- D. All proceedings before the Council or hearing officer shall be in accordance with the Local Agency Law.
- E. The owner, Code Enforcement Officer and owners of properties within a radius of 500 feet shall receive written notice of the date, time, and location of the hearing.
- F. The appellant and all other parties having an interest may be heard. All decisions shall be made within 30 days following the last public hearing. The decision shall be in writing stating clearly the factual and legal basis for the decision and forwarded to the owner within 30 calendar days from the last hearing. Any further appeals shall be in accordance with the Local Agency Law.

§267-13. Codes Violations.

Nothing in this article shall preclude or prohibit the Code Enforcement Officer or other Borough designee from identifying any code violations or inspecting any property according to the terms of any of the referenced codes at any time, whether or not the particular premises is scheduled for periodic inspection under the terms of this Chapter and/or the prior issuance of a Rental Occupancy License.

§267-14. Violations and Penalties.

- A. The failure of any owner to effect corrections as provided in this Chapter shall be considered a violation of the Borough Residential Rental Property Ordinance and the procedures and penalties prescribed therein shall be applicable.
- B. The failure of any owner to register a Residential Rental Unit and/or schedule an inspection or re-inspection as provided in this Chapter shall result in the issuance of a notice to the owner that the property is not a Qualified Residential Rental Unit, in which event it shall be unlawful for any person to occupy or to let to others for occupancy the subject premises until the unit becomes a Qualified Residential Rental Unit after inspection and compliance with any violation notices.
- C. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any provision of this ordinance shall, upon being found to have committed the violations in a civil enforcement action before a District Justice, pay a civil penalty not to exceed Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) per violation. Each day that the violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense and punishable as such. The Borough may enforce this ordinance in equity or through injunctive relief in addition to or in lieu of such civil action before the District Justice. If the penalty for the violation of this ordinance is not timely paid and the person, firm or corporation upon whom the penalty was imposed is found to have been liable therefore in civil proceedings, the violators shall be liable for the penalty imposed including additional daily penalties for continuing violations, plus court costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the Borough in the enforcement proceedings. Any fine which remains unpaid and outstanding after the time specified therein for payment shall be grounds for the imposition of a municipal lien upon the premises as provided by law. Such a lien may be reduced to judgment and enforced and collected as provided by law, together with interest at the legal rate and court costs. The remedies provided by this subsection are not exclusive and the Borough and its Code Enforcement Officer may invoke such other remedies available under this Ordinance or the applicable codes, ordinances or statutes, including where appropriate, condemnation proceedings or declaration of premises as unfit for habitation; or suspension, revocation or non-renewal of any license issued hereunder.
- D. In the instance of repeated violations of this ordinance, whether for the same or similar offenses or for various offenses, the Borough may, upon the owner being found to have committed the violations in a civil enforcement action before a District Justice, revoke the Rental Occupancy License, in addition to any other remedies provided in this ordinance. Said revocation shall be effective for a period of up to one year, at which time a new application for registration may be submitted and shall be reviewed in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance. Three license revocations attributed to one owner shall result in a permanent revocation.

§267-15. Exceptions.

- A. Notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, a Rental Occupancy License shall not be required for, and this ordinance shall not apply to, any of the following:
 - 1. Any property that is owned and offered for rent as a residential dwelling unit by an accredited college or university so long as the property is located on the campus of the college or university and that the occupants of the dwelling units are currently enrolled as full time students of the college or university.
